Uganda: Nsambya Babies Home is one of the ministries of the Sisters of the Immaculate Heart of Mary that was established to care and protect children abandoned at birth. It provides many services, but is heavily dependent on the good will of sponsors. Previously, parishioners of St. Joseph Parish sponsored the installation of solar panels at one location of the orphanage. Now, the sisters are hoping to install solar panels for approximately $10,000 at another location due to their lack of electricity. A parishioner, Lydia Duvall, is going to Uganda with Fr. Matthias Wamala on May 31st with a focus on aiding the sisters in providing quality care to children. Through donations, it is hoped $10,000 will be collected. Individuals interested in donating and/or sponsoring this cause may do so by mailing cash or check made payable to St. Philip Parish, memo Nsambya babies home.
