These items will be listed on tags in the box attached to the Others First poster in the front of church. Please stop by and take a tag or two.

Uganda: Nsambya Babies Home:

This ministry was established to care and protect children abandoned at birth. A parishioner, Lydia Duvall, is going to Uganda with Fr. Matthias Wamala on May 31st with a focus on aiding the sisters in providing quality care to children. Individuals interested in donating and/or sponsoring this cause may do so by mailing cash or check made payable to St. Philip Parish, memo Nsambya babies home.

ROSARY BEFORE MASS:

Before every weekend Mass in May, we will be reciting the rosary approximately 20 minutes prior to the start of Mass. We always need rosary leaders. If you are able to help, please contact Beth McDonald (750.5645 or rebel4212@gmail.com).

NOTE FROM FATHER BOB:

I would like to thank all of those who made the Easter celebrations a beautiful and spiritual experience. The Altar Society and Worship Committee got the church in such beautiful shape. Ann Wright's and Donna Woeste's choirs and music was just outstanding. And, the servers, greeters, ministers, and lectors did a wonderful job fulfilling their duties. A special thanks to Ed Vogel as our sacristan for all the setup and clearing for each service. He made this a less stressful weekend (except for him). And to all who attended one or more of the liturgies for filling up the pews and making this Easter a very joy filled and spirit filled experience.
Father Bob
