Once again St. Philip parishioners exceeded expectations for our New Hope Center collection. Here are the numbers: 785 Diapers, 25 packages of wipes, 3 formula kits, 5 burp cloths, 3 blankets, 6 outfits, 71 onesies and 40 sleepers. What a generous response! Thank you.

Others First – April

This month, we are collecting paper items for St. Johns Pantry on Lower Tug Fork. They are in need of paper towels, Kleenex and toilet tissue. And, please don't forget we are also collecting supplies for our Vacation Bible School. Our VBS needs Kroger gift cards, yarn, miscellaneous craft items, sandwich and brown lunch bags, balloons, pipe cleaners, child's paint brushes, scraps of cloth material, bubble solution and many other specific items. These items will be listed on tags in the box attached to the Others First poster in the front of church. Please stop by and take a tag or two.

Uganda: Nsambya Babies Home:

A parishioner, Lydia Duvall, is going to Uganda with Fr. Matthias Wamala on May 31st with a focus on aiding the sisters in providing quality care to children. Individuals interested in donating and/or sponsoring this cause may do so by mailing cash or check made payable to St. Philip Parish, memo Nsambya babies home.

MAY CROWNING:

On Sunday, May 7th, the school and CCD program will celebrate May Crowning at Sunday Mass. The parish will honor the Blessed Mother around 10:00 a.m. (between the 9 and 11 a.m. Masses). All school students and families are expected to attend and participate in the procession. The Blessed Mother will be honored as we crown her statue in the church and also in the garden. The second grade students will serve an important role as they are being asked to wear their First Communion dress clothes.

SAVE THE DATE: NEXT SUNDAY!

Parish Council will once again host the Parish Picnic on Sunday, May 7th from noon to 3:30. Jack's Catering will be grilling hamburgers and hot dogs and the Boosters will provide drinks. All you are asked to bring is a side dish or dessert to share. We will have games for the kids and hopefully Mother Nature will again provide us with a warm and beautiful afternoon to enjoy.

ROSARY BEFORE MASS:

Before every weekend Mass in May, we will be reciting the rosary approximately 20 minutes prior to the start of Mass. We always need rosary leaders. If you are able to help, please contact Beth McDonald (750.5645 or rebel4212@gmail.com).

Stop! Listen! Is God calling you?

Our Sunday school religion program for Grades 1-8 public school students will need to fill two teacher positions next school year. There are two simple requirements: a desire to teach and share God's love and our Catholic faith; and having an hour of your time on Sunday mornings (between masses) to meet with the children. We will provide you the class materials, support and help you get Virtus certified. We also have substitute teachers available to fill in when you may have scheduling conflicts. This is my third year teaching and I never imagined it would be so rewarding. Please contact me if you have any interest or questions. Mary Jo Tiemeier, CCD Coordinator (email mjtiem@aol.com or 859-635-3887) or Gina Heeg, CCD Coordinator at ginaheeg@fuse.net.
